one laptop per child

"It's an education project, not a laptop project."

nicholas negroponte

"Laptops are the pencils for the digital age. The sooner we can provide high quality learning environments for all, the better and more cohesive our societies will become."

david cavallo

"This is another great example of the value of the community; we would not have working presence in this stable build had this bug not been found and resolved, but would have had to disable Avahi in favor of stability."

walter bender

"No it's not merely a tool, it's much more than a tool. It's a medium of thinking like writing isn't just a tool. Writing is a way of thinking and if you say that somebody is a literate person it's not that that person has mastered a tool."

seymour papert

"Nico has an astonishing ability to move in hypertextual space, where buttons and icons may open new windows, change colors and shapes, produce sounds, create drawings and letters..."

antoinio battro

"Children first."
